The Hoffman and Pottery Brickworks site redeveloped and part of the gentrification of Brunswick with retention of historic and national trust classified elements throughout the development has a mix of townhouses and apartments. Situated on the first floor overlooking the brick paved forecourt and chimney's this two bedroom modern apartment has a great balcony opening from the lounge with galley kitchen. The main bedroom has an L shape recess that could suit a small workspace and the second bedroom of similar proportion. A security car space with storage cage is part of the offering in this dynamic locality with tram and train on the doorstep, adjacent parkland, community amenities and a stroll in any direction to an array of cafes, pubs, and shopping precincts.
