Enjoying a quiet, an open-plan lounge/dining area, cleverly configured to offer outstanding living space while retaining generous dimensions elsewhere. Affording seamless indoor/outdoor flow, full-height sliding glass reveals a considerable balcony with vibrant greenery, making for memorable afternoons with friends. A stellar kitchen features plentiful soft-close cabinetry and upmarket Fisher & Paykel appliances, further underlining the home's entertaining prowess. • second-floor apartment among the high finishes. • Two generous bedrooms served by robes and two stylish bathrooms • An open living/dining area merging with a substantial, sun-drenched balcony. • Sleek stone surfaces and upmarket appliances. • Metres from restaurants, cafés, boutiques, parks, freeways, and city trams. Together serviced by a luxe main bathroom, ensuite, and sizeable, guest bedrooms provide and direct outdoor access respectively, while further highlights include sleek stone surfaces and heating/cooling, a video intercom, European laundry, and one underground car space with added storage. With crisp architecture and lush landscaping by industry-leaders. The complex sits seconds from a selection of thriving restaurants, cafés, and boutiques, with Tullamarine and Calder Freeways, city-bound 59 trams, and the peaceful expanses of Buckley Park just metres away.
