Nestled just a short walk from both Toorak and Hawksburn Village, with their delightful array of shops and restaurants, this charming two bedroom one bathroom older-style apartment offers an exceptional living experience. Flooded with natural northern light, it features a sheltered outdoor balcony offering serene, leafy views, making it an ideal space for a comfortable and convenient lifestyle. Impeccably presented, the apartment boasts original timber parquetry that flow from the entry hall to the living room. The living room includes heating and cooling and adjoins a spacious master bedroom with built-in robes. A second double bedroom, also with built-in robes, is situated next to the bathroom. The separate kitchen offers ample cupboard space. Additional features include a security entrance, car parking on title, and excellent access to public transport.
