A prime NW corner position in the secure Generation W complex floods this harbourside apartment in natural light with windows on three sides framing sweeping cityscape views with every room enjoying a superb outlook that are dazzling by night. On the edge of Finger Wharf, 100m to the harbour foreshore and its celebrated dining scene, the oversized two-bedroom apartment's streamlined interiors and north-facing balcony make an ideal low-maintenance home for the executive buyer or as a city bolthole. Just over 1km to the CBD and 600m to Kings Cross station, this is a fantastic location for the urban dweller with nearby pedestrian access via the Brougham Steps to Potts Point's cosmopolitan urban village. Step outside and discover top restaurants, cocktail lounges and the iconic Harry's Cafe de Wheels or walk across The Domain to the Art Gallery of NSW and the Royal Botanic Gardens.
