Sitting high in a charming mid-century building, this one-bedroom apartment is perfectly positioned for an easy, enviable South Yarra lifestyle. Nestled between Toorak Village and all the cinemas, restaurants and retail of Chapel Street, it holds incredible and perennial appeal for residents, making for an impeccable investment. Set back in a quiet spot amongst treetops, the residence unfolds over gleaming polished timber floors. The central living/dining space is filled with ample natural light from large windows, and opens out onto a private balcony. The bright kitchen is home to a stainless steel oven and gas cooktop. The bedroom finds built-in robes, a wall panel heater and grand chandelier. And the bathroom offers stylish tiling, a walk-in shower and a dedicated laundry area. The brilliant lifestyle locale sits just 4km from the CBD, surrounded by an amazing array of restaurants, cafés, bars, boutiques, cinemas and so much more. Trams stop outside your door and it's a quick walk to Hawksburn station. Stroll to Como Park, Herring Island, and Yarra River walking trails and parklands.
