Situated on a quiet no through road, close to central Hobart, this spacious and sunny apartment offers easy living in an ideal location. Recently undergoing some cosmetic upgrades this great unit boasts two bedrooms, a large living area with electric heating and a great functional kitchen with pantry and abundance of cupboards. The bedrooms both have built-ins and the good-sized combined bathroom and laundry is neat and clean. Plus, you'll have access to a single secure garage and well-kept leafy communal grounds surrounding the complex. Its top floor position means you can enjoy plenty of sunlight and great views glorious views over the rooftops and across to Mt Direction. This property is offered fully furnished and with nothing else to do but just move in. Just around the corner from popular Hill Street Grocer for everyday supplies, and a short drive from the many shops at New Town Plaza, this is a great location to access the many services in this bustling area so close to the city. All the renowned North Hobart shops, eateries and entertainment are within easy walking distance, as well as the charming Lenah Valley retail precinct along Augusta Rd.
