You won't want to miss this renovated 2x1 packed with features and with a homey feel. With modern flooring, paint, fixtures and fittings throughout. You will love the renovated kitchen with additional built in cabinetry for extra storage and bench space that extends your kitchen to include a lovely meals area. The spacious living area opens onto the back a great outlook and has the s/s r/c air con. The new bathroom makes the most of the space. With a separate laundry and toilet. The decked patio overlooks the good size lawn area, in built storeroom and extra garden shed. With plenty of room to the side for access through and storage. Tucked away in a private spot at the back of this well-maintained complex walking distance to the local shops and amenities.
