This supremely convenient apartment provides a stylish home base for city fringe living. Beautifully presented, its open-plan layout is bathed in natural light, radiating modern elegance, and featuring high-quality finishes throughout. The open-plan living area presents dedicated lounge and dining zones, bookended by the modern kitchen and sunny terrace. The culinary space holds a central position, boasting quality appliances within sleek white cabinetry. Moving through to the lounge, complete with plush carpeting, the apartment then opens to an enviable terrace, providing an outdoor retreat for everyday living and alfresco dining. Accommodation consists of two generous bedrooms, each offering built-in wardrobes with a mirror finish. The bathroom exudes the same contemporary style found throughout the apartment, featuring a sleek glass door shower, toilet, floor-to-ceiling tiles, and a vanity with ample storage space. Additionally, a laundry area provides plenty of room for appliances and additional storage needs. Within a leisurely stroll of the vibrant North Hobart hub bustling with cafes, restaurants, and bars, and with convenient access to local recreation, this apartment offers a lifestyle that effortlessly blends urban convenience with contemporary comfort.
