Set high on the third floor and with a north-east aspect, this corner apartment is perfectly positioned to offer you picture-perfect living. Relax with a coffee in hand on your private balcony as you take in the sensational outlook, it doesn't get much better than this whether you're a first-time buyer or seasoned house hunter. The layout is bright and open-plan with a seamless flow from the kitchen through the living space and out to the balcony. Glossy tiles are on show, paired with a crisp colour palette for a modern feel. In the kitchen, sleek stainless steel appliances, including a fridge, await the budding chef and, for those who love to entertain. There are two bedrooms, both with oversized windows that welcome in lots of natural light while also framing views over the treetops and out to the landscape beyond. Every room is air-conditioned and there is also an intercom security system, a private mailbox, blinds throughout and a linen press to complete the list of impressive features. You will live within a boutique building of just 14 units with lift access to every floor. There is also a parking space with a remote-controlled entry but with such a central location close to the train, shops and amenities, you can leave the car at home and explore on foot.
