Ideally located just 1 km from the hospital and 2 km from the Bendigo CBD, 12 Bakewell Street offers both convenience and tranquillity. Situated on a quiet corner block, this residence is one street down from the Tysons Reef Hotel and 1.5 km from Lake Weeroona, making it perfect for anyone wanting to be close to the CBD but still enjoy a peaceful neighborhood. The charming exterior of this home boasts a light brown rendered façade complemented by light blue weatherboards and dusty rose accents. Stained glass windows add a touch of elegance and period charm. Step inside to discover a blend of modern comfort and period features throughout. The hallway, adorned with white walls and wooden floors, seamlessly flows into the kitchen. To the right, the bright master bedroom awaits with plush carpeting, high ceilings, a walk-in robe with a powder area, and an ensuite. On the left, you will find two spacious carpeted bedrooms. Throughout this home you will find ducted heating and cooling and further down the hallway, the expansive bathroom features double sinks, a two-person spa bath, dark tile floors, and white tiled walls. A private toilet is conveniently located off the main bathroom. The laundry room offers ample storage and a large sink, making household chores a breeze. The large family lounge room, with its high ceilings, overlooks the spacious kitchen. The kitchen itself is a chef's delight with a wooden countertop breakfast bar wrapping around, a huge pantry and a 5-burner stove. The decked entertaining area is perfect for gatherings, featuring two established lemon trees and a mandarin tree. This area leads to the two-car garage, which includes a large workshop attached, providing plenty of space for projects and storage, with rear access via Thunder street. This home is a rare find, offering the perfect blend of convenience, comfort, and charm. Don't miss the opportunity to make 12 Bakewell Street your new address.
