Imagine your early morning walk by the lake, feeding the ducks, and watching the world go by. Grab yourself that coffee and greet the locals on your leisurely walk to the train station, and on the weekends, decide to meet up with friends for a meal at Westfield Shopping, all within walking distance. Entry-level accommodation is ideally suited for those of us just starting out, keen investors with an eye for their next investment, or downsizers who want the lifestyle offered in this prime location with everything at your fingertips while still aiding in school drop-offs. Uniquely designed with two bedrooms, one bedroom and bathroom downstairs, plus European laundry. The open-plan upper level hosts a stunning Stone kitchen with splashback and stainless steel appliances, including a pantry, breakfast bar, and dishwasher. Gleaming engineered timber flooring adds to the ambience and accentuates the light-filled space. The casual living and dining spill out onto a lavish balcony for your larger family gatherings and all-year-round enjoyment. Features include a single garage, internal access, split system heating and cooling, a solar hot water system, engineered timber flooring, splashbacks, downlights, and so much more. Walking distance to Westfield, South Morang train Station, local shops, a hairdresser, cafes and eateries, Mary Mede College, South Morang primary and secondary schools, kindergartens, a lake, and recreational facilities
