Living here is all about your convenience. Get the best of both worlds, living in a quiet cul-de-sac and being only a few minute drive to the shopping mecca of Capalaba where you can find just about anything your heart desires. Stroll down the street and grab your morning coffee at the Frontier Coffee House, arguably one of the best coffees you can buy in the Redlands. While you drink that down you might want to explore the nearby parkland conveniently located via footpath at the end of the cul-de-sac. Public transport nearby. No more school run with Capalaba State College in easy walking distance. Features:

- 3 bedrooms – main with walk in robe and fan
- Generous sized lounge room
- Dining room
- Modernised kitchen including stone bench tops
- Self-contained laundry
- Large double car port with drive-through
- Additional hardstand for a boat or caravan.
- Large outside patio area
