This property is a true gem, offering a land size of 539m² with spacious living areas seamlessly joined to an ample kitchen, creating an open and inviting living space. The bright bathroom adds a modern touch, and all three bedrooms come with built-in wardrobes for convenient storage. What sets this property apart is the additional family area that opens up to a beautiful pergola, perfect for outdoor relaxation, dining, and entertaining. There's also no shortage of parking spaces, ensuring convenience for multiple vehicles. The well-maintained garden surrounding the property enhances its aesthetic appeal, while the running track and reserves at the back of the house provide a natural and serene backdrop. The property's proximity to the Brimbank Shopping Center, schools, bus routes, and parks adds to its convenience and accessibility. If you're looking for a well-rounded home with ample living space, a bright bathroom, and both outdoor and recreational opportunities, this property is a great find. Schedule a viewing today to experience all it has to offer.
