Quietly resting on one of Narraweena's most popular streets, this expansive, tri-level home offers a unique and highly flexible floorplan that is enhanced with incredible panoramic views that capture both district and ocean. Currently configured with three bedrooms and a living area on the upper levels, two bedrooms and further living space on the lower level, plus a detached studio with additional living and accommodation space, there is so much potential to mould this home to your own family's needs. An ideal set-up for multi-generational living, with separate entrances offering private access if needed. Also featuring a sunny north-facing backyard with a saltwater pool, tons of storage space, and a double garage, you can comfortably live in this home as it is for a long time. However you may feel inspired to update or change the layout around to suit your needs, whether you choose to live in it as one large residence, or create a dual-occupancy arrangement. Narraweena is a relaxed and practical location for family life. Quiet and serene, yet central to everything you might need, including cafes and amenities in Narraweena village, beachside lifestyle hubs in Dee Why, Collaroy and Freshwater, and shops and supermarkets at Warringah Mall. Additional features of this property and location:

- Sunny backyard with resort-style saltwater pool
- Solid full brick construction, north aspect to rear
- Detached studio with two rooms plus bathroom
- Stunning ocean & district views from upper levels
- Master suite with balcony, en-suite & ocean views
- Living areas on both levels, tons of storage space
- Extra-height double garage & driveway parking
- Option for multi-generational living
- Emerging street in friendly neighbourhood
