Welcome to 12 Desmond Crescent, Romsey. Set on a large 1001 sqm block and beautiful in every way, this property will capture your heart. If you are looking to have the accessibility of Melbourne and the Country lifestyle of Romsey this could be the one for you. As you enter the home you are met with an inviting atmosphere that immediately makes you feel at ease, showcasing the staircase and a spacious rumpus room that adds an extra layer of charm to the property, this versatile space is not only well-sized but also features a stunning built-in fireplace, providing both a focal point and a cozy ambiance this ties in effortlessly with the rest of home. The open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area deserve an early mention as this really is the heart of the home. The modern kitchen featuring Caesarstone benchtops, and the convenience of two built-in fridges makes it perfect for keeping your beverages cool during family gatherings, another stunning fireplace in the lounge room sets the mood for those movie nights or romantic nights in. The alfresco area, fully covered and equipped with a fan – a perfect setting for family gatherings and entertaining friends. The generous outdoor space allows for a seamless extension of your living area, creating a versatile space for various occasions. Upstairs, three spacious bedrooms each with BIRs share a centrally located, well-proportioned family bathroom and the Master bedroom with separate bathroom featuring an extended shower and his and hers vanity and WIR. A separate living space for those seeking a quiet and dedicated space to work or study, is an ideal candidate for transformation into a study room or what you desire. For those seeking additional practicality, this property includes a spacious laundry, catering to the demands of a busy household. The laundry is designed for functionality while maintaining a sense of style, making daily chores a breeze. Livable as is, there's still scope for further enhancement and individual touches, the large block has endless possibilities, an ideal solution for securely parking your boat, caravan, or other recreational vehicles. From the meticulous landscaping to the well-planned interiors, 12 Desmond Crescent, Romsey, offers a lifestyle of comfort and sophistication.
