Number 12, Four Mile Creek Road - an original and charming beachside retreat steeped in history and character. This classic shack, built in 1967, offers a timeless escape from the hustle and bustle, nestled on a 683m² allotment that gently slopes away from the waterfront. As you approach, you'll find this hidden gem standing proudly along the quiet little road that separates it from the serene waters. The home beckons with its nostalgic charm, featuring 3 bedrooms, 1 bathroom, and a rear sunroom that seamlessly connects to the back yard - a private haven for relaxation and recreation. Step inside, and you'll be greeted by the warmth of Tasmanian Oak floors and timber feature walls that exude a sense of coziness and character. The centrepiece of the living space is a wood heater, inviting you to unwind on cool evenings or bask in its glow after a day of seaside adventures. Listen to the soothing sounds of waves lapping against the shore, check the surf conditions from your bedroom window, or keep a watchful eye on your fishing rod from the comfort of your lounge - this beachside haven offers a connection to the sea that is truly unique. Then there's the secure rear yard - an ideal space for children to play freely and pets to roam, ensuring a sense of safety and tranquility. Four Mile Creek itself is a quaint town perfectly positioned between Bicheno and Scamander/St Helens, offering proximity to the East Coast mountain bike trails, vineyards, cellar doors, and National Parks. Embrace a lifestyle that only a few can truly appreciate - a harmonious blend of coastal living, outdoor adventures, and the simple pleasures of life. Number 12, Four Mile Creek Rd is not just a property; it's an invitation to experience the beauty of a bygone era by the beach. Discover the charm, create memories, and make this unique retreat your own.
