Imagine a home that you may have strolled by many a times and often glanced across at, but never known what lies in-store...This is most certainly that home...Perfectly positioned to take in full use of the entire 705m² lot and just a short 4 minute trip to town. This grand and spacious, light filled family home awaits its new and extremely lucky owners. Decadent features on offer: A formal home theatre with plantation shutters Located towards the front of the home, along with the master suite Modern and neutral ensuite and generous walk in robe Opening to the 'piece de resistance' of the home A galley style kitchen with full island bench where all the family can't help but gather Flows to the well appointed alfresco dining where another expansive outdoor dining and lounge will easily accommodate Overlooking the entire rear yard, slightly elevated, where your eyes will wander to the double gates where a rear laneway awaits and your many ideas will flow for your future workshop Wander back inside and the light filled family and meals area that encases the heart of the home with an ambient fireplace on offer to naturally heat the entire home will capture your senses. I could say so much more about this stunning and well adored family home, but really, this home must speak for itself. So be sure to add this true delight to your 'Must-See-List'!!
