

12 Gundara Street, The Gap, Qld 4061

House For Sale

Wednesday, 13 March 2024

12 Gundara Street, The Gap, Qld 4061

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 546 m²

Type: House

Carmen Briggs

Offers over $1,230,000

Enjoying a peaceful position within a desired enclave of The Gap, this inviting residence is generously sized for families and well-designed for versatile living demand. There is a versatile combination of living spaces, upstairs and downstairs, inside and out. Whether enjoying down time or entertaining family and friends, this amazing home will deliver on your every demand. The kitchen is centrally positioned and offers great workspace and storage while ensuring you are always part of the buzz. Seamlessly flowing out to the covered entertainment area and resort style pool creating a perfect space for families to enjoy quality time together. Accommodation comprises of four bedrooms including the separate guest / teenage retreat. The 3 bedrooms upstairs are serviced by the family bathroom conveniently positioned across the hallway and the oversized bedroom downstairs has its own living space and ensuite. Additional features include: -- 546m² - Large family home with elevated views- Airy and light-filled living and dining on polished timber floors- Immaculate kitchen with superb storage, and tremendous bench space- Covered rear patio overlooking in-ground swimming pool and landscaped rear- Separate laundry with direct access to drying area- Walk to St Peter Chanel, The Gap Primary School, and The Gap State High. Designed for the growing family, this glorious family home will deliver on your every demand with plenty of space for the whole family to spread out. Start packing the boxes and put this at the top of your list! Carmen makes buying real estate simple, easy and stress free, so call Carmen today!