THE BEAUTY AND MAJESTY OF IT. A glorious breeze and a magnificent view of the natural world that makes Bowen such a fabulous place to live. Hilltop lot with 761 sq. metres and most of the block is level making building so simple. Whitsunday Paradise Estate overlooks Bowen and its harbour, Port Denison, where sailing, fishing and all forms of marine recreation are yours to enjoy. The views extend from breath taking sea views to hinterland mountains. The land is fully serviced, including sewerage and occupies pride of place in what is a well planned, modern residential community with good quality homes and generous parks and open space on the foreshore and within the estate. You need not choose to build anything more than a modest home or you may prefer to create the home of your dreams. Either way, your choice will look pretty darn good in this setting. Call us today for more information and make an offer to make it yours.
