Situated on a typically quiet street yet without compromising on position, this immaculate home in such a perfect locale has been beautifully updated. Boasting natural light and spread out over one generous level, this home bears all the requirements for a comfortable home. The versatility of this particular residence is impressive, comprising two good-sized bedrooms, one central bathroom with a separate toilet, a well-equipped kitchen with an abundance of cupboard and bench space plus a vast open-plan living/ dining area. This is all complimented by the gorgeous rear backyard, low maintenance, and providing that perfect outdoor setting (including a storage shed and excluding the lock-up garage). Additional features include gas cooking, hardwood floors, and off-street parking. Within walking distance to primary schools, and public transport and surrounded by parks and reserves, this perfect residence will soon be home to some very lucky tenants.
