

12 Henry Street, Bridport, Tas 7262

livinghere

Sold House

Monday, 14 August 2023

12 Henry Street, Bridport, Tas 7262

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 2

Area: 1396 m2

Type: House

Gary Thomas
0363323500

$625,000

Captivating Water Views, 4-Bedroom Home on a Generous 1,396m² Block Welcome to this delightful seaside property nestled in the picturesque village of Bridport. Boasting panoramic views of the sparkling water known as Anderson Bay, this timeless home offers a unique opportunity to embrace the coastal lifestyle and make lasting memories. Set on a generous 1,396m² block, this charming residence presents four bedrooms, one bathroom, and an abundance of potential. Built in 1955, the home proudly retains its original character, inviting you to step back in time and create your own coastal haven. As you enter the property, you'll be greeted by the invigorating scent of the sea breeze and the soothing sounds of crashing waves. The unobstructed water views captivate the eye, providing a sense of tranquility and serenity. Imagine waking up to the gentle rhythm of the ocean, as the sun's golden rays dance across the water. The elevation of the block and the endless possibilities it provides is the true worth of this property as seen in other sites around Bridport. The four bedrooms are comfortable and inviting, each offering a peaceful retreat after a day spent exploring the sandy beaches and scenic trails of Bridport. The bathroom, though original, is functional and provides the perfect canvas for a future renovation, should you choose to add your personal touch. The two Golf courses Barbougle and Lost Farm are a short ten minute drive down the road and are considered as some of the finest courses in the world. Bridport Village itself is a charming coastal community, renowned for its laid-back atmosphere and breathtaking natural beauty. From fishing and boating to beachcombing and exploring the rugged coastline, there is no shortage of outdoor activities to indulge in. The village also offers a selection of local shops, cafes, and amenities, ensuring convenience and a sense of community. This seaside property in Bridport presents a remarkable opportunity to secure your own piece of coastal paradise. Whether you are seeking a peaceful retreat, a holiday home, or a development opportunity, this property's location, character, and potential make it an enticing choice. Don't miss your chance to embrace the idyllic seaside lifestyle. - Please note viewings at open homes only