It's not often that we come across a home with this much space in this price bracket, add in the fabulous views and great location and you know you are on a winner. As you enter the property through its wide double doors, you are instantly drawn to the large views and open plan interior. The dining area is bathed in sun and features large windows with views across Upper Burnie and out to sea. There is direct access from the dining area out onto the patio and into the backyard. The patio is another fabulous spot to enjoy those commanding views, maybe a BBQ with friends or your morning coffee. The kitchen is neat and tidy and is complete with dishwasher and plenty of storage. The bathroom has also been updated and designed for family living. This large home has it all to make family living a pleasure; • Watch the kids playing in the backyard from the kitchen and dining area • Rumpus room downstairs for indoor playing • 5 genuine bedrooms all with built-ins • Cosy wood heating • Abundant storage • 2nd garage/man cave with its own toilet • Plenty of space in the driveway to park extra vehicles, caravan or the boat • Easy walk to local shopping centre and schools Classic and stylish 1960s red brick and tile architecture with its solid and straight lines, light and airy interiors and generous room sizes - this home is fabulous buying.
