What a great opportunity to get into the current hot property market. Proudly presented to the market by Liz Reece and the Harcourts team. A lovely family home set on approx. 788 sqm in a quiet street. Comprises of - 3 good sized bedroom and an external room as an office or play room. - Centrally located main bathroom and separate WC. - Open plan timber kitchen and meals area with plenty of storage and bench space- Spacious living room with beautiful wood floors and a lovely outlook to the front gardens. Outside you'll find a stunning deck with pitched roof pergola for year round entertaining and huge double garage with drive thru access from the carport which has a roller door and is double length. The gardens have been lovingly maintained and host a myriad of local bird life. Ducted cooling, ducted gas heating and solar panels add to the comfort of this home. A well loved and maintained home just waiting for a new owner to call home. Act quickly or miss out
