Carefully renovated and generously proportioned, this much-loved home has been confidently brought into the 21st century with almost every room experiencing a thoughtful update without losing any of the character in this tidy three-bedroom home. The cosy living room features brand new flooring and paint throughout, a natural gas heater and three large, north facing windows filling the space with warm sunlight. Continuing through the open plan space is the fully renovated and stylish kitchen with new appliances, spacious benchtops, and more than ample storage, creating a space that any home chef will surely love. Down the hall are three comfortably sized bedrooms each with built-in-wardrobes and serviced by a central bathroom and separate toilet. Outside the home, the corner block is taken full advantage of with a generously proportioned and fully fenced yard providing a comfortable space for children and pets to safely play. The home is made complete with street access through to the adequately sized shed in the backyard and a single carport at the front. This unsuspecting home has a lot to offer and shouldn't be missed for any serious buyer looking for a quality home or next investment opportunity.
