This neat and tidy 3-bedroom 1 bathroom residence is tranquilly nestled in a wonderful cul-de-sac location and is perfect for those looking for a sanctuary. Manicured front gardens, close to the beach and much more. A generous front lounge and formal dining room welcomes you upon entry and is graced by modern low-maintenance flooring, as well as a gorgeous bay window that allows plenty of natural sunlight to filter through - especially during the mornings. The kitchen is tiled and overlooks the main open-plan family and casual meals area with splendid views of a massive backyard, whilst the bedrooms are all carpeted for comfort - with the larger master boasting a ceiling fan, a huge walk-in wardrobe, a sliding door leading out to the rear and semi-ensuite access into a practical bathroom where a separate shower and bathtub cater for everybody's personal needs. Out back, a majority of the area is paved and bordered by low maintenance garden beds. The budding tradesman of the house will be left salivating at the prospect of a giant workshop in the corner of the yard, right next to a separate garden/storage shed that itself is fairly decent in size.
