Well, situated in one of historic Battery Point's premier streets, just a few minutes' walk to the city, Salamanca Place and the waterfront. This tastefully renovated cottage retains all the charm and delightful ambiance of yesteryear. This stunning home boasts picture perfect street appeal and is protected by a high fence at the front, with a lace-worked veranda and brick paving. A long-arched hallway with polished Tasmanian Oak floors, gives access to two double bedrooms and a study or third bedroom. A newly renovated bathroom and upstairs to a large dormer third or fourth bedroom with river views. The open plan lounge, dining and kitchen overlook a large outdoor veranda with stunning views of the Derwent River, the marina of the Royal Yacht Club of Tasmania, St Georges Church and Mt Wellington. The gardens are landscaped and welcoming. There is off-street parking with the security of automatic gates. Available from 11/04/2024 for a 12-month lease.
