Sitting high above Bicheno, with spectacular views over Diamond Island, across Waubs Bay to Redbill point, is this modern 3 bedroom home. Featuring a large open plan living, dining and kitchen, the living room boasts large custom built Tasmanian Oak library shelving, with large glass doors opening on to the undercover deck, making the most of the beautiful vistas. The 3 bedrooms come with built-ins and main with built-in robe and ensuite, a combined bathroom/laundry and separate toilet. This stunning home is built from Colorbond en Seam nailstrip, has insulated walls and ceiling, 5 kilowatt solar unit and decking all around for easy access to the backyard, garage and carport with an additional nearly completed bathroom and plenty of parking space. The backyard is full of Australian natives, with apple trees and a vegetable garden ready to go. The home also has the benefit of an additional water tank. Close to all town services and beaches and located in a friendly and quiet neighborhood, it is perfectly set up to be your permanent home, investment opportunity or a special place to escape to on weekends.
