For the first time in over 60 years, we are delighted to present 12 Olga Street Chatswood to the market. Nestled on a quiet, tree-lined street and surrounded by some of Chatswood's finest homes, this 1962-built, free-standing, single-level residence exudes timeless charm and offers a desirable north/easterly aspect, level garden block. Location, Location, Location - Situated in the heart of Chatswood, the property offers unrivalled convenience. Just a short stroll away, you'll find yourself in the vibrant Westfield and Chatswood Chase shopping complexes, where you can indulge in a world of boutique stores, dine at exquisite restaurants, and enjoy an array of entertainment options. Plus, the proximity to Chatswood railway and bus interchange ensures seamless connectivity to the rest of Sydney. The house itself boasts a versatile floor plan, featuring four bedrooms and two bathrooms. With a layout designed for flexibility, there is potential for a self-contained in-law suite or a garden flat with its own separate entrance. This opens up endless possibilities for accommodating extended family members or even generating rental income. The property also includes a two-car garage, ensuring ample space for your vehicles and additional storage needs. But it's not just about practicality - the sentimental value attached to this home, having been much loved by the original owner all these years, adds a touch of warmth and character to the property. From its cherished history to its prime location and flexible accommodation options, 12 Olga Street Chatswood is a rare gem ready to welcome its new owners. Don't miss out on this incredible opportunity to make this house your new home.
