In a commanding position, on the headland at Fingal Bay, sits one of the most beautiful homes you will see. Wake to the sound of the surf and the song of the birds in the bush reserve opposite. The spacious two storey home underwent an amazing full renovation when the current owners took up residence, with a design brief that allowed them to claim the top floor as their own and replicate everything on the ground floor, including a full kitchen (with a stove that has never been used) for family and guests. Generous open spaces define the house, with polished ceramic flooring throughout the living areas, sumptuous carpets in the bedrooms and top shelf appliances, the owners spared no expense on the build. Six generous bedrooms, three bathrooms, a large study and the ability for separate, self-contained living on both floors open up lots of options. Overlooking the pool, with a waterfall cascade and pergola, the top floor balcony has views of the beach and is the perfect place to entertain. Large bi-fold glass doors unite the outdoors with the indoors and creates an enormous open plan area to relax or party. No matter whether it's a light breakfast for two, or a sumptuous festive feast for a crowd, the beautifully appointed kitchen will make cooking and catering a breeze. Only a couple of minutes walk to the beach, you will kick yourself if you miss out on this amazing opportunity to invest in a coastal lifestyle. Surrounded by national park, Fingal Bay is now considered the next Byron, and with the proposed launch of international flights from the local airport, we expect prices to soar.
