Established gardens aid privacy and add to the street appeal for this family home. The front facing patio offers a place to relax and watch the world go by or retreat inside through the sliding doors to original hardwood floors which flow throughout the home. Freshly painted, the interior has a great flow - living, dining room and kitchen are all connected, with potential to remove a dividing wall and open up the space to give a modern feel. The front room could become a second living area, office, or additional bedroom depending on your needs. All three bedrooms are well sized and feature large windows making them light and airy. Main bathroom has been tastefully renovated with walk in shower. At the rear of the home is downstairs laundry and separate toilet. Outside offers a private, covered patio which allows you to enjoy your own back yard and beyond. Plenty of storage and shed space on offer here for those who love to keep themselves busy. Covered car accommodation is available at the side of the home and there is room for vehicle access as well.
