Enjoying an imposing position on the high side of the court basking in fabulous views that stretch over the bay to the You Yangs and beyond. A well-conceived design features multiple formal and informal living and dining areas offering plenty of space to relax, play and entertain, this grand home offers a luxurious family lifestyle. Adding further appeal is the sophisticated master suite with a full private bathroom, plus a sun deck drenched in sea views and sun. Warm timber flooring throughout most of the house offers a relaxed coastal touch as does the central log fire, love is in the air. This beautiful home is such a wonderful surprise from the very moment you walk through the front door, a central atrium offering so much light cooling the vibe, so much storage - everywhere, classic updated bathrooms, drive through garage, double side gates to back yard, additional workshop shed, two water tanks, established gardens, there is so much to this incredible home, inspect and discover.
