Presenting for your consideration is this well-kept, solid brick three-bedroom home on a large allotment. More details, photos and a floor plan soon! It really is a lovely home, original condition which has been a happy family home for many years. High ceilings, and quite elegant is this home you should consider! There is a concrete swimming pool that is not used, and a large shed which has been lined. How lovely if these could be utilised by another family who will love it as much as the current family do. Registrations of interest at this stage only please, and hope to update all soon.
