Sitting high on the elevated side of Tarina Street is a breathtaking and brand-new contemporary coastal residence, with panoramic tree top vistas, multiple inviting living and entertaining areas inside and out, located centrally in the ever-desirable Noosa Heads. With the upper level having been recently completed and the original lower level skillfully redesigned and reimagined, this idyllic freshly finished home will be sure to capture your imagination. Enjoy the expansive open plan living/dining/kitchen area upstairs, with dual entertaining decks, one overlooking the new pool and gazebo, the other the lush parklands opposite. Take in the soaring high ceilings, immaculate designer kitchen with stone bench tops and Smeg appliances, complete with ducted air conditioning throughout. From this high vantage, feel the ocean breeze flow from the front balcony through the main living space and out to the back veranda, this is what coastal living is all about. The oversized master bedroom upstairs is a standout, with a calming leafy outlook, walk in robes and stylish ensuite with quality floor to ceiling tiling. Downstairs cool yourself in the generously sized north facing garden with new saltwater pool and gazebo area, plus enjoy several inviting outdoor spaces to escape to and relax in, all surrounded by luscious tropical gardens. There's plenty of room to entertain guests outside, a perfect place to sip on a cocktail around the fireplace or simply relax with family. On the lower level there is also a second living area, an ideal media room/ rumpus with handy study nook, plus another master bedroom with stylish ensuite and built ins. There are two more sizeable bedrooms with built ins and views out to the evergreen gardens. Close by is a large modern family bathroom with a full-sized bath and the generous laundry is conveniently opposite. With off-street parking for three cars or two cars and a small boat, there's room for all your toys. There is a two car lock up remote garage with ample storage and an additional space on the eastern side of the house for one more car/boat. Enjoy the central Noosa Heads location, walk to the ever-popular Noosa Junction with its award-winning restaurants, fashion boutiques, cinema, theatre and cafes. Bike ride to schools, beaches, national park trails, Noosa Farmers Markets, shopping and more. Noosa Main Beach and Hastings Street is just a short five-minute drive away. Everything is at your fingertips. Why not save yourself the trouble of building and or renovating? There is nothing to do here except unpack your bags and enjoy. Come and discover this freshly completed and cleverly reimagined contemporary coastal residence for yourself.
