

12 Wakool Ave, Rosebud, VIC, 3939

Sold House

Friday, 14 April 2023

12 Wakool Ave, Rosebud, VIC, 3939

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 5

Type: House

Amanda Kaye

New Chapter Awaits

Positioned in a peaceful pocket, this quality family home close to bushland reserves whilst being in reach of schools, shops, and the Rosebud foreshore. This gorgeous family home radiates personality and charm making it hard to resist. Beautifully presented with a range of upgrades, it is ready and waiting to welcome the next family lucky enough to call it home. Five bedrooms are yet another draw card adding appeal for the largest of families and with a clever floor plan multi-generational living is at its best with a choice of living zones for everyone in the family to unwind and relax. A very large double garage opens internally to the downstairs, that offers a spacious lounge or rumpus room that will accommodate the cooler nights with a stunning gas wood fire, opening out to the first of the outdoor entertaining areas. With two large bedrooms the space is ideal for the older kids or would make a great area for guests, with the added option of a home office /study exists also.

Upstairs is truly the social family hub of the home, where family and friends can gather around the expansive breakfast bar or spill out to the covered alfresco for effortless entertaining. The spacious light filled kitchen is well equipped and will cater easily for the largest of occasions with S/S appliances such as gas cooktop Electric under bench oven, double fridge space, corner pantry and dishwasher. The opulent king-sized master bedroom supplies a very generous walk in wardrobe and a recently refurbished ensuite, the two further bedrooms both with built in robes are serviced by a large family bathroom, complete with corner spa. The home sits proudly on 835m² of land (approx.) and with access to the rear of the property, boat and caravan accommodation is easy. This property is a must to inspect.