With a premier position close to amenities and a wealth of fine features inside, this property blends convenience and comfort to perfection. Set over a single level and situated near Presidents Park, Manor Lakes Central Shopping Centre, Riverbend Primary School, and Wyndham Central Secondary College, this home offers an outstanding lifestyle. Currently periodically rented and also ideal for investors searching for an instant return. The quality brick exterior featuring a leafy landscape, covered entry, and single garage with in-house access, is designed to offer timeless appeal. The interior is ideal for family living with 3 spacious bedrooms with quality carpet, including the main bedroom with an enviable ensuite and walk-in robe. The bright and inviting living space is lined with dark floorboards and large windows for a relaxed yet refined feel. The open plan kitchen that services this space is adorned with a gas cooktop, stainless steel oven, and breakfast bar that welcomes family and friends to make themselves at home. In the warmer months, step out to the outdoor entertaining area and big blank canvas garden that suits growing families to a tee. Finishing touches include a large family bathroom with soaking tub, generous laundry, air conditioner, gas central heating, gas hot water service and garden shed. Inspection will impress, so plan your viewing today.
