Entering the home at Swimming Creek Over 50's Nambucca Heads a carport undercover area meets you, leading to the front door. A tiled entry with some cabinetry leads from the back screen door through a glass sliding door into the lounge room, a long room with timber laminate flooring, mid partitioned via a dual TV cabinet. First room off this area would be a bedroom with builtin robes along with timber laminate and Venetians to the windows. Further along, a step-up leads to the kitchen of reasonable size, single sink in laminate kitchen benches, and cupboards of melamine, gas upright cooker, along with a pantry and LG refrigerator in the corner. The back room, is another bedroom with open plan bathroom, of shower, toilet & mirrored vanity. Glass sliders lead from the back of the lounge room and back bedroom to a deck, great place for that morning cuppa or sundowner drinks. A garden shed is out back along with a mini greenhouse, ideal for getting those indoor plants growing. A clothesline is also nearby of wall mounted design. The space around is low maintenance of pavers. The home has a feng shui feel to it with mirrors placed about giving a spacious feel. An interesting design with a builtin laundry near the rear door, leading to the back verandah.
