A truly magnificent Bourkelands residence which has been thoughtfully planned, meticulously maintained and presented by its original owners. Most welcoming from the moment of entry, the home oozes an air of both elegance and warmth, not always present in a modern home. Personal space for all family members is abundant with a large lounge room, doubling as a cinema when required, together with a separate rumpus/office/utilities room. For the fussiest of cooks, comes the most practical kitchen layout which includes gas cooking, dishwasher, bench and cupboard space galore and the most amazing walk-in pantry. The open plan design keeps the family together with adjoining dining and family areas. When it comes to sleeping accommodation, a generous master bedroom heads the list and together with his and hers walk-in-robos and a huge ensuite is something special indeed. An additional 3 double-sized bedrooms, all with built-in robes will adequately service the remaining family needs. Situated on an elevated block with expansive rural views from the rear undercover entertainment area. Additional features include fully fenced yard, children's playground and double garden shed. All in all, a home packed with features and one that will tick all the boxes of the most fastidious of buyers.
