Enter via the ornamental tree lined Uraidla Main Street (Greenhill Rd) and become captivated by St Stephens Church. Beautifully crafted in 1892 and extensively renovated in 2004 the Church maintains the old-world charm whilst currently welcoming all new age food and wine connoisseurs. Having been transformed over the years from place of worship to studio style dwelling, B&B and now restaurant/wine bar & wedding venue. It would still serve well as any of the above or, with careful thought and development, one could add tourist accommodation, pop up bar, transition back to a stunning home and build a separate dwelling on the second title (STCC). Located opposite well-known Uraidla Hotel a new resident could enjoy a mutually beneficial relationship. Sit upon their balcony and enjoy the tour down under. Dine on local culinary delights or warm yourself with local banter whilst gathering around the impressive fire pit. All these features only moments to Adelaide and other superb local attractions including world renowned cellar doors, roadside produce stalls and stunning scenery. Contact agent for further details and to arrange an inspection.
