Unity provides the option of living in a serviced apartment, where you can enjoy all the benefits of living independently in the community and still have help close at hand if you need. In addition to having delicious daily meals prepared for you by our chef, your home will also be cleaned weekly. The friendly staff can take care of the heavier chores such as washing towels and bed linen. With these tiresome household tasks taken care of, you can sit back, relax, and spend time enjoying your retirement.
