Located on a quiet road just 1km on from the Geeveston town centre, this impressive character home enjoys a sunny north-facing aspect and pleasant views of rural surrounds. The 3 bedroom home includes many of the original character features, including polished timber floors, open fireplaces with brick chimneys, sash windows, classic hallway arch, Baltic Pine ceilings & more. The classic look & feel of the home is supported by new wiring & plumbing throughout. The open plan & dining area features a pitched ceiling with exposed timber beams, dado walls and an upgraded country kitchen. A formal lounge at the front of the home enjoys lovely sun throughout the day and includes both reverse-cycle air-conditioning and wood heating. Three large bedrooms, all doubles, and each includes a fireplace. A gorgeous veranda skirts the east and north sides of the home, while a covered rear patio at the back of the home provides extra outdoor sitting & entertaining space. The home sits on a large 1140m² lot, gently sloping, with lovely established gardens and fully-fenced with vermin-proof fencing. Conveniently located just a short level walk from a wide variety of shops & services, schools, bus stops, popular restaurants & cafes, social clubs and much more. Enjoy the best of both town & country along with a vibrant local community. Approximately 50 minutes to Hobart. Call today for more information and to arrange an inspection.
