Sleek modern interiors blend with sublime entertaining provisions to offer first-class living in a location always in demand! Alongside five bedrooms and multiple living zones, easy family living and outdoor entertaining never looked so good with a rooftop terrace capturing the perfect sunset views across leafy suburbia! Manicured landscaping and a modern façade lead into a crisp and light-filled interior, underpinned by tiled flooring and warming timber elements; pendant lighting and the use of modern finishes ensuring timeless sophistication. Intuitively designed for family life, there are great options in which to connect or unwind including a large open-plan family and dining on the lower level with a plush lounge sitting upstairs. Bringing the family together in absolute class and style, the centrally positioned kitchen impresses with both high functionality and high-end inclusions with the large footprint encompassing a tremendous stretch of streamlined cabinetry, huge walk-in pantry, gourmet appliances and a fabulous stone island bench with seating. There is great connection to a covered alfresco zone, flowing perfectly from the open-plan interior to offer a seamless option to take your dining or lounging outdoor. Step out further and enjoy the lush backyard, fenced and grassed with easy maintenance appeal and good sizing for children and/or pets. Enhancing your entertaining options in superior style, take the indoor stairway up onto the unique roof top terrace where glorious views and cooling breezes provide the perfect backdrop to sunset drinks! Four large built-in bedrooms are privately tucked away upstairs, with a fifth built-in bedroom/study downstairs for added versatility. The master includes a private terrace, large walk-in robe alongside a huge private ensuite with dual vanity and separate bath and shower set in a sophisticated palette. The main bathroom offers family friendly provisions with a third bathroom downstairs ensuring ultimate convenience. Additional features include a separate laundry, ducted air-conditioning and double remote garage. Nestled within a quiet position, renowned for superb access to a brilliant facilities, this is a superior lifestyle yours for the taking!
