

121 Normans Road, Young, NSW 2594

Raine&Horne.

House For Sale

Monday, 4 December 2023

121 Normans Road, Young, NSW 2594

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 4

Parkings: 5

Type: House

Kim Goonan
0412823607

Contact Agent

Driving up this tree lined driveway you will not miss this eye catching uniquely bricked home that is built on 2.9 hectares, close to town with town water which has just been listed for sale. Providing you with 4 very spacious bedrooms, 3 with built in robes and main with ensuite and walk in robe also offers a parents retreat with kitchenette, dining lounge room, office, separate bedroom with ensuite. Entering this beautiful home you will instantly admire the high ceilings, spacious hallway and decorative finishes. The beautiful timber flooring has been laid over a concrete slab for that perfect finish. The light filled timber kitchen features a free standing 5 gas burner cook top and oven, walk in pantry and a skylight with shut out blinds to hide that mid day summer sun. French doors open out from the light filled dining room to the entertaining area. The bathroom and ensuite are tastefully designed with elegance in mind featuring pressed metal walls and the bathroom has an enamel bath, perfect for relaxing in after a hard day. The formal front lounge room is heated by a gas log fire place and ducted heating and cooling keeps the remainder of the house at the perfect temperature. Just outside the parents retreat is the cinema room complete with a foyer, staged seating area, screen and projector and professionally installed surround sound. If gardening is your thing, there is a shed that can fit a single car along with a ample storage, an indoor/outdoor dog run and green house. This area is perfect for your gardening tool equipment storage and to grow your own plants. Along side of this is a separate double carport with hay shed /storage shed beside it. Entertaining has been stepped up with this outdoor area giving your next gathering a truly unique experience. This area was built using locally sourced bricks that are over 100 years old. The old oven sets the tone for a rustic feel on any occasion and with the surrounding grounds which include a abundance of succulents and variety of in ground plants this garden is perfect for entertaining on any level. Be the envy of any horse lover with the working equitation arena, tack house built from rustic materials, horse shelters and plenty of room for your horse to frolic. This exceptional property has so much more to offer including town water, underground tank water, pasture improved front paddock, stunning views of town and weather events, well laid out gardens and grass areas, front and back verandahs, fire pits situated to take in the views and school bus pick up over the road. Located around quality homes on lifestyle blocks, this property is a rear find and needs to be seen to be appreciated.