Positioned on the fringe of Melbourne's CBD in once known as Australia's iconic Carlton and United Breweries, this stylish apartment is a fine display of lock-up-and-leave living. A triumph in modern finishes and light-filled space along with full-height windows define striking interiors, including open-plan living/dining, deluxe stone appointed kitchen, private balcony, bedroom with ensuite, pristine bathroom, study and split system heating/AC. The new purchaser will appreciate the exclusive building facilities including lap pool, steam room, spa and private cabanas, grand dining room, garden room, library and cinema. Prominently located, with the super tram stop and Swanston Central on the doorstep, and a heartbeat to Queen Victoria Market, Victoria Harbour and Docklands, Spring Street, Flinders Street Station, and Federation Square.
