Located in the popular Hulme Drive Estate. This brick veneer home presents to the highest standards and retains all the original architectural features of space and comfort and is a benchmark property for the discerning buyer. The welcoming formal entry to the home is just one of the design features that gives the home its special status. A bright sun filled lounge with gas wall furnace, ducted evaporative cooling plus excellent second living/dining leads to a modern kitchen with Euro maid quality appointments. Accommodation includes three spacious bedrooms all with built in robes. A magnificent bathroom with separate toilet concludes the internals of this quality home. Externally a large undercover outside living alfresco area is perfect for entertaining. A large workshop or enclosed garage accompanies a double carport with remote plus there is room for a boat and a 2.9m x 8.4m space for a caravan. 122 Appin is ready for inspection, call Brett Goodwin on 0408 574 966 for more information!
