

123 Kent Street, Millers Point, NSW 2000

House For Sale

Thursday, 16 May 2024

123 Kent Street, Millers Point, NSW 2000

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Type: House

Djordje Kresovic
0422632327

Nick Gittoes
0408636543

Contact Agent

Why you'll love it: A haven of peace and privacy in the heart of Sydney's cosmopolitan hub, this beautifully preserved and renovated Victorian sandstone terrace combines all the comforts of modern family living with a nostalgic homage to days gone by. With stunning period features, generous accommodation and a spacious, child-friendly backyard, it is easy to forget the convenience of being mere footsteps to a plethora of world-class dining, leisure and entertainment attractions – a truly unique lifestyle. Key features: - Lovingly preserved c.1846 rowhouse terrace with a striking street presence - Original architectural details including sandstone walls, five elegant fireplaces, and restored timber floors and doors - Four generously appointed bedrooms, master suite showcasing an ensuite and harbour views - Large gourmet kitchen with stone bench tops, European appliances, Italian tile splashback and butlers sink - Dual living areas, sunroom & versatile enclosed dining/entertainment space, air-conditioning - Luxurious master bathroom with state of the art hand crafted copper bath - Spacious & sunny low-maintenance backyard, perfect for children, pets or entertaining - Secure pedestrian access from High Street, parking permit & car park for lease available - Minutes stroll to Barangaroo shopping & dining, The Rocks historic precinct, Marrinawi Cove Swimming Basin, & many beautiful local parks - Endless transport options at the doorstep, footsteps from Kent Street tennis courts & Observatory Hill Best suited for: Discerning buyers looking to combine the comfort of Sydney's romantic past with the convenience of a cosmopolitan future, in a location that is as charming as it is central.