Step back in time as you enter this unique abode, where history and charm effortlessly entwine. As you walk through the front door you remember the simple times in life, when home life was fun all the time, and guests came around to be entertained whilst sitting at the fireplace. With two/three bedrooms, one bathroom, and a separate living room, you'll have space to spread your wings and embrace the peaceful vibes of this property. For those with a creative spirit, there's a workshop ready to become your outdoor sanctuary for woodcraft and pottery - a space where your imagination can take shape. As you explore this rustic retreat, you'll find yourself drawn to a babbling brook, where the soothing sounds of water create a symphony of tranquillity. It's the perfect spot to reconnect with nature and let your worries wash away. This property is a canvas awaiting your creative touch, a gift in the form of transformation. While it may need some TLC and elbow grease to restore its former glory, consider it an opportunity to infuse your personal style and vision into every corner. Reviving this home isn't just a project; it's a chance to mould it into a reflection of your dreams and aspirations. There is an extra small outdoor rustic building, which could be a canvas for your gardening dreams, offering a space to cultivate your green thumb and create your own organic oasis. Imagine sipping herbal tea as you overlook the lush green grass, surrounded by farmland and the majestic Mother Cummings Peak in the distance. If bushwalking is your passion, you've found your paradise. This property is your gateway to a world of exploration and adventure. Regenerate your life, revive your spirit, and embark on endless hikes through the untamed beauty of Northern Tasmania. Enjoy times tucked away in this enchanting corner of the world. It's more than a house; it's an invitation to a simpler, more harmonious way of life. Nestled at the foot of the magnificent Great Western Tiers is 124 Barber's Road, not just a property but, rather, a journey back in time.
