Surf The Pass or iconic Wategos then enjoy a short scenic drive home to your private hinterland paradise. Privately screened from the road by a row of established trees, this idyllic property opens up to reveal an incredibly rare north and north/west aspect with views to the beach, while the masterfully designed residence promises an unrivalled hinterland lifestyle - complete with what some say is the best private bar in Byron Bay. Two beautifully appointed living and accommodation wings are connected via a louvred gallery, spilling out to a full-length timber verandah overlooking the lush grounds where the artfully landscaped pool and entertaining area takes centre stage. A haven for families, the main living and dining area is blessed with soaring high ceilings, stylish timber floors and expansive windows to showcase the incredible views. Designed for home chefs, the sleek kitchen impresses with stone benchtops, ample storage, large gas oven and high-quality appliances. Transition out to the timber deck and dine alfresco as you soak up the stunning natural ambience. Framed by exquisitely landscaped gardens, the gorgeous pool with seamless glass balustrade is an inviting oasis to be treasured by the whole family. Luxuriate in the calm waters as you admire the farmland-to-coast views, or host friends in the bespoke pool house by John Burgess Architects, responsible for some of the most iconic architecture in Byron Bay including the award-winning Rae's on Wategos, The Balcony (formerly the Orient Hotel), and most recently, The Bower Byron Bay, as well as numerous residential and commercial projects in Sydney and Noosa. Parents can escape to serenity in the plush master suite with luxurious ensuite, large walk-in robe and sublime sunset views. Designed for a spa-like experience, the ensuite bathtub is framed by walls of glass allowing the most indulgent soak complete with ocean vistas. Finishing off this expansive wing is a secondary bedroom with built-in robe and direct deck access, while a chic powder room and generous laundry are the definition of form and function. Cleverly designed, the north wing comprises two spacious bedrooms adjoining a large living room with honed concrete flooring and seamless connection to the ocean-view covered deck.
