A comfortable brick veneer lifestyle property that offers plenty of space for the entire family featuring a double carport and a huge shed for extra storage of cars, caravans or boats. Situated on a large 28 acre (approx.) land parcel, this property is a true oasis in the countryside. This home boasts 5 spacious bedrooms all with BIR's providing ample storage, blackout blinds and ceiling fans. Both of the bathrooms and toilets are centrally located close to bedrooms and living areas meaning bedtime and morning routines will be less hectic with plenty of room for everyone to get ready for school and work. As you step inside, you will notice that the home has been thoughtfully renovated with new timber flooring, modern blinds, ceiling fans, freshly painted interior and one of the bathrooms fully renovated. Stay warm in winter with the cozy wood fireplace in the living room which overlooks the open plan dining and kitchen area. The kitchen has been updated and equipped with modern appliances, plenty of storage and bench space with the added bonus of a breakfast bar which is perfect to chat with friends or help children with homework while preparing the family meals. Nestled on over 28 acres of cleared countryside there is so much room for a game of backyard cricket, riding push bikes, motor bikes or 4 wheelers while enjoying a summer BBQ or a relaxing picnic down by one of the two large dams. With fully fenced paddocks this property would be ideal for those with horses, cattle or sheep. Every window of this home compliments the stunning views of the surrounding countryside and whether you want to relax on the front patio or take a stroll through the paddocks, this property offers endless opportunities to enjoy the outdoors. Surrounded by nature, and offering a peaceful and serene lifestyle in the countryside, this property has it all.
