This smaller 3 bedroom brick veneer home is perfectly located just north of the CBD behind the Visitors Centre. A short, easy walk / scooter ride to the main street with important direct access to the garage plus side ramp. Low maintenance in every sense of the word, ideally suited for retirees and or those with restricted mobility. Built in 1999 the home is starting to show its age, however has been very well maintained & practical in design. Comfortable size, traditional open plan with two natural gas heaters & ducted evaporative cooling throughout. Offers functional timber and laminate kitchen supporting electric appliances and casual meals area opposite. Features built-ins to all bedrooms, dual access 3-way bathroom to master bedroom and 2nd toilet to laundry. Deposited plan title & MU1 mixed use zoned, it's a manageable approx. 436sqm's with only the front yard to maintain. Out the back there's an undercover outdoor living area, sizeable garden shed & purpose built brick pet enclosure. If you've been patiently waiting for the right home close to the town centre, this one demands your early attention!
