Exuding coastal sophistication, this exceptional three-bedroom residence harmoniously blends chic design elements with a coastal-inspired ambiance. The luminous entryway sets the tone for a sophisticated lifestyle, featuring curated lighting, a refined colour palette, and elegant timber flooring. The open-plan layout seamlessly connects a spacious living room, adjoining dining area, and a stunning stone-finished kitchen with a walk-in pantry, high end appliances, and captivating views of the sparkling in-ground pool. Abundant natural light floods the entire space through an array of windows and glass sliding doors. The kitchen takes centre stage with its statement stone benches, quality stainless steel appliances, and a versatile island bench doubling as a breakfast bar. A convenient butler's pantry enhances the kitchen's functionality. Thoughtfully zoned, the three bedrooms enjoy picturesque green views, accompanied by a sunlit main bathroom. The master bedroom, resembling a hotel suite, boasts a luxurious walk-in robe and ensuite with an oversized shower. From its flawless facade to the double remote carport and off-street parking, this home showcases numerous highlights. The outdoor entertaining space is perfect for alfresco enjoyment, featuring a newly constructed swimming pool as the focal point, surrounded by lush greenery. The barbecue area, poolside lounging space, and designated dining zone offer ample room for outdoor activities. Kids and pets will love the large grassed backyard and dad will love the large storage room. Situated just minutes away from beaches, Chevron Island, and fine dining at Capri on Via Roma, this property with a prestigious Bundall address invites coastal breezes and tranquillity. Conveniently located opposite Southport Golf Club, and within close proximity to leading private schools TSS & St Hildas, and Southport Park Shopping Centre, this immaculate home promises a life of luxury and privilege in a mesmerizing coastal-inspired setting. An excellent opportunity for the astute minded, but with good homes in such short supply, be quick before its gone.
